SUMMARY OF INCIDENT:

On 01 November 2014, at approximately 2016 hours, Officer Anthony Cutrone and his partner, Officer Adam Maseth, were on routine patrol with their Tactical Team in the 007th District, when they received a radio call regarding a man with a gun at [REDACTED] S. Morgan Street. Upon arrival, the two officers heard a male voice in distress coming from the rear of the building and went in that direction through a vacant lot on the south side of the building. When the two officers reached the rear yard, Officer Maseth observed the subject, now known as [REDACTED] inside the rear yard holding a firearm in his hand. Both officers scaled a six-foot fence to exit the vacant lot and heard the rear door of the building slam shut. The officers entered the rear yard through an open gate. Officer Cutrone approached the rear door, kicked it open, and observed [REDACTED] walking down on a staircase between the 1st and 2nd floor. The officers observed [REDACTED] holding a firearm with a white cloth wrapped around the hand with the firearm. When the officers ordered [REDACTED] to drop the firearm, he complied by laying the firearm at his feet where he stood on the first-floor landing. The officers repeated verbal commands directing [REDACTED] to turn around and away from the firearm. The officers observed [REDACTED] rocking his body back and forth for several seconds. [REDACTED] then bent over and reached down toward the firearm. Officer Cutrone, in fear for his safety as well as that of Officer Maseth's, discharged his firearm three times, striking [REDACTED] in the abdomen. [REDACTED] then moved backward on the landing as Officer Cutrone took him to the ground and attempted to handcuff him. Officer Richard Schmidt #7422 and his partner, Roman Torres #18424, who had also responded to the call, entered the enclosed porch through the rear door. Officer Schmidt assisted Officer Cutrone in handcuffing [REDACTED] who was still struggling, while Officer Torres recovered the firearm from the landing. [REDACTED] was transported to Stroger Hospital via Ambulance #36.

INVESTIGATION:

The IPRA Preliminary Report essentially provided the same information as reported in the Introduction section of this report. (Att. #4)

Attempts to Contact the subject, [REDACTED] by letter and personal visits were unsuccessful. (Att. #'s 12, 15, 53, 71, 74, 81, 92)

Attempts to Contact [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] parents who resided on the second floor, by letters and personal visit were unsuccessful. (Att. #'s 53, 74, 81, 88)

In a To/From Report, the Reporting Investigator indicated that he spoke via telephone to witness [REDACTED] who resided on the first-floor apartment. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she had already provided a statement to the detectives and did not wish to be involved any further. (Att. #83)

In a To/From Report, the Reporting Investigator indicated that he spoke via telephone to [REDACTED] who resided in the basement apartment. [REDACTED] stated that he and his wife, [REDACTED] did not observe the officer-involved shooting, but heard about four quick shots fired coming from the alley. [REDACTED] added that they did not hear anything prior to the shots fired and only exited their apartment later when the police had arrived. [REDACTED] was told by his upstairs neighbors that their son was "drunk" and had a gun, and was shot by the police in the back porch. (Att. #85)

A canvass was conducted by IPRA Investigators in an attempt to locate additional witnesses and/or evidence. The canvass did not yield any witnesses or additional information. (Att. #10)

According to Department Reports under RD# HX491411, including the Arrest Report, Original Case Incident Report and Detective Supplementary Reports, Mr. [REDACTED] was arrested on 01 November 2014, at 2020 hours, at [REDACTED] S. Morgan Street, and charged with two counts of Aggravated Assault with a firearm. The arresting officers were Officers Cutrone and Maseth, who responded to a person with a gun call at the above location. Upon arrival, Officer Maseth observed [REDACTED] standing in the rear yard holding a dark-colored handgun. The officers ordered [REDACTED] to drop the weapon and [REDACTED] complied. [REDACTED] then attempted to grab the firearm from the floor of the rear porch. Fearing for his life and his partner's life, Officer Cutrone discharged his firearm, striking [REDACTED]. The officers then placed Mr. Garret in custody. Officer Roman Torres, an assisting officer, recovered [REDACTED] firearm and turned it over to the crime lab. [REDACTED] was then transported to Stroger Hospital for treatment. [REDACTED] was charged with two counts of aggravated assault on an officer with a firearm.

Witness [REDACTED] stated that she heard someone kicking at the door out back and heard a male voice yell out, "It's going to go down tonight, motherfuckers!" Ms. [REDACTED] recognized the voice to be that of her upstairs neighbors' son, now known as [REDACTED]. Ms. [REDACTED] then heard one shot fired and she dropped to the floor to take cover. Ms. [REDACTED] called 911 and while she was on the telephone with the operator, she heard three additional gun shots fired. A few minutes later, Ms. [REDACTED] heard someone on her back porch and heard a male voice<sup>1</sup> yell out, "Stop, put the gun down!" Ms. [REDACTED] then heard [REDACTED] yell out, "It's gonna go down tonight, motherfuckers!" The male voice told [REDACTED] "Put the gun down!" Ms. [REDACTED] then heard three gun shots, followed by scuffling on her back porch. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she did not observe any part of the incident and that she remained inside her apartment during the entire incident.

On 02 November 2014, at approximately 2320 hours, at Stroger Hospital, [REDACTED] provided a statement to the responding detective, in which he stated that he was in the back of the building at [REDACTED] S. Morgan, smoking marijuana laced with PCP. [REDACTED] was armed with a revolver that he had purchased two years earlier. [REDACTED] stated that he had an ongoing "beef" with "Bingo," a local drug dealer. According to [REDACTED] that evening, two of Bingo's associates entered the backyard and fired gunshots at him. In response, [REDACTED] yelled out, "Let's get this done tonight," and fired all six rounds in his gun. When the police arrived, [REDACTED] was on the back porch. According to the detective summary, [REDACTED] admitted that, when the police officers told him to drop his gun, he ignored them because he was angry. [REDACTED] stated that he had his gun in his hand when the police shot him and that he should have dropped it when the police told him to. (Att. #'s 14, 18, 54, 67-69)

According to the Tactical Response Report (TRR) completed by Officer Cutrone, [REDACTED] did not follow verbal direction, stiffened, pulled away and used force likely to cause death or great bodily harm by attempting to grab his firearm, a .38 caliber black revolver. Officer Cutrone responded with member presence, verbal commands, and the discharge of his firearm. Officer Cutrone discharged his firearm three times from a distance of 5 to 10 feet. In addition, Officer Cutrone employed wristlock, armbar and take down/emergency techniques to place [REDACTED] into custody. (Att. #6)

According to the Officer's Battery Report (OBR) of Officer Cutrone, Officer Cutrone was in citizen's dress responding to a man with a gun, now known as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] on 01 November 2014, at approximately 2022 hours, in the residential porch/hallway of [REDACTED] S. Morgan Street. Mr. Garrett pointed a weapon in the direction of Officer Cutrone. Officer Cutrone did not sustain any injuries. It was noted that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] actions were drug-related. (Att. #7)

According to the Tactical Response Report (TRR) completed by Officer Maseeth, [REDACTED] did not follow verbal direction, stiffened, pulled away and used force likely to cause death or great bodily harm by attempting to grab his firearm, a .38 caliber black revolver. Officer Maseeth responded with member presence, verbal commands and take down/emergency handcuffing. Officer Maseeth did not discharge his firearm. (Att. #16)

According to the Officer's Battery Report (OBR) of Officer Maseeth, Officer Maseeth was in citizen's dress responding to a man with a gun, now known as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] on 01 November 2014, at approximately 2022 hours, in the residential porch/hallway of [REDACTED] S. Morgan Street. [REDACTED] pointed a weapon in the direction of Officer Maseeth. Officer Maseeth did not sustain any injuries. It was noted that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] actions were drug related. (Att. #17)

Evidence Technician photographs depict the shooting scene; three shell casings, and overall photographs of Officers Cutrone and Maseeth. A diagram of the shooting scene depicts the locations of the fired cartridge cases. (Att. #'s 48-52, 89)

The OEMC and PCAD reports were collected and made part of this case file. An analysis of the Chicago Police Department Event Queries and Transmissions shows that the following relevant 911 calls and dispatch transmissions were made:

- On 01 November 2014, at 20:14:46 hours, a 911 caller<sup>2</sup> reported shots fired. The conversation between the caller and the OEMC dispatcher was as follows:

Dispatcher:	Chicago Emergency, Hendricks.
Caller:	Yes, I'd like to have the police to come out to 58, uh, 39 S. Morgan. There's somebody banging on the back door and screaming and yelling and kicking the back door, and I don't know who it is.
Dispatcher:	OK. So this a house?
Caller:	Yes.
Dispatcher:	OK. Did you want to leave your name?
Caller:	Actually, shots just went off.
Dispatcher:	Oh, God. How many shots did you hear?
Caller:	Just two now. Three.
Dispatcher:	Is that person still banging?
Caller:	Four.
Dispatcher:	Is that person still knocking?
Caller:	No.
Dispatcher:	OK. We're going to go ahead and get the police over there. Thank you, ma'am.
Caller:	(inaudible)

- On 01 November 2014, at 20:14:23 hours, a second female caller, who identified herself as [REDACTED] requested the police at the above address about a male individual who's "acting crazy" and may be on some "PCP stuff." When the dispatcher asked her how she knew this individual, Ms. [REDACTED] responded that it was her son, and added that he had a gun and he was shooting it outside. Ms. [REDACTED] further stated that her son, [REDACTED] was thirty two years old, had dreads and wore a gray jacket.

<sup>2</sup> Although the female caller did not identify herself during the telephone call, the CPD Event Query for Event # 1430515345 indicates that the call originated from telephone number 773-512-0614. The investigation revealed that the above number belongs to the witness, [REDACTED] who resides at the first floor apartment at [REDACTED] S. Morgan St.

- On 01 November 2014, at 20:17:21 hours, the OEMC dispatcher informed units in the 007th District of shots fired at [REDACTED] S. Morgan. The dispatcher further informed units that the caller stated that a person was frantically pounding on the back door and that four shots were fired. The dispatcher added that, also at [REDACTED] S. Morgan, a caller reported that the “son is high, outside with a gun.” The dispatcher provided the information of the suspect as “[REDACTED] 32 years of age, gray jacket.” Beats 762E and 762C responded to the call.
- On 01 November 2014, at 20:20:19 hours, an unidentified officer reported over the air, “he’s inside, squad, he had a gun in his hands, and (inaudible) walked upstairs.”<sup>3</sup>
- On 01 November 2014, at 20:20:38 hours, the same unidentified officer reported over the air, “we’re in the back, we got him in the back.”
- On 01 November 2014, at 20:20:42 hours, an unidentified officer shouted, “Shots fired!” An unknown female voice stated, “Shots fired at the police, shots fired!” When the dispatcher inquired whether shots were fired by or at the police, an unidentified male voice reported that the shots were fired at the police; the dispatcher then issued a 10-1 for the address.
- On 01 November 2014, at 20:21:14 hours, an unidentified officer stated, “We need officers at the back.”
- On 01 November 2014, at 20:21:30 hours, an unidentified officer can be heard stating, “Put your hands up!” and thirty seconds later, an unidentified officer reported “shot over here, get the ambulance rolling.” Other unidentified officers asked if the offender or the officer were shot and an unidentified officer responded that the “offender is shot, the officers are OK.” Beat 710 later reported over the air the name, star number and beat number of Officer Cutrone as the involved officer. (Att. #'s 38, 56-63)

The Chicago Fire Department Ambulance Report documented that paramedics located a black male, now known as [REDACTED] lying on the back porch at [REDACTED] S. Morgan Street. It appeared that [REDACTED] had suffered three gunshot wounds to his abdomen. The report indicated that [REDACTED] was in Chicago Police custody with a strong “etoh”<sup>4</sup> odor and with slurred speech. It was further noted that [REDACTED] refused

<sup>3</sup> The CPD Event Query for Event # 1430515345 indicates that Beat 762E, assigned to Officers Schmidt and Torres, communicated this statement and the statement about shots fired; however, based on their statements to IPRA, Officers Schmidt and Torres were not in a position to observe [REDACTED]. As a result, the Reporting Investigator believes that the above statements were made by Beat 762C, assigned to Officers Cutrone and Maseth.

<sup>4</sup> “ETOH” is a medical term for alcohol. It is an acronym for ethyl alcohol.

to answer any questions regarding himself, his past medical history, or events leading up to the incident. [REDACTED] was transported to Stroger Hospital. (Att. #20)

Medical Records from Stroger Hospital documented that [REDACTED] sustained three gunshot wounds to his right upper abdomen. During surgery, bullet fragments were found lodged inside [REDACTED]. Hospital staff indicated that [REDACTED] appeared intoxicated with alcohol or drugs, and added that he was yelling, combative, and refused to provide any prior medical history and how he got shot. (Att. #72)

The CPD Inventory List Report documented that [REDACTED] revolver and discharged cartridges from the revolver cylinder were recovered from Officer Torres. In addition, a pack of cigarillos containing four tin foil packets of brown substance, suspect PCP, was also recovered from [REDACTED] clothing and inventoried, along with other items belonging to [REDACTED] (Att. #'s 21-35)

Illinois State Police Forensic Science Laboratory Reports document the examination of the recovered ballistic evidence under Inventory numbers 13305503 and 13305607. Officer Cutrone's firearm was test fired and found to be in proper firing condition. Based upon analysis of ISP Reports and Forensic Reports, it was determined that Officer Cutrone fired three times. The shell casings and fired bullets were compared to Officer Cutrone's firearm and found to match his weapon.

[REDACTED] firearm and six discharged cartridge cases, which were inventoried under Inventory number 13305496, were examined and revealed no latent impressions suitable for comparison. The firearm was test fired and found to be operable. (Att. #'s 75-76, 90)

Court Documents for criminal case 14CR2119501 indicate that on 04 May 2015, [REDACTED] pled guilty to two felony counts of aggravated assault of a police officer with a weapon and sentenced to one year in prison. (Att. #78)

In a statement to IPRA on 02 November 2014, the witness, Officer Roman Torres, stated that on 01 November 2014, he was assigned to the 007th District Tactical Team, Beat 762E, conducting regular patrol. Officer Torres was the passenger in an unmarked police vehicle driven by his partner, Officer Richard Schmidt. Both officers were in civilian dress. Officer Torres stated that they received a radio call of a person with a gun at [REDACTED] S. Morgan. Officer Torres acknowledged the call and the officers drove to that address. Upon arrival, they observed Officers Cutrone and Maseth arriving in their vehicle. Officers Cutrone and Maseth exited their vehicle and went toward the back of the building. Officer Torres stated he did not know why Officers Cutrone and Maseth went to the back of the building. Officer Torres observed an older black male lean out of the second-floor window and yell that his son has a gun. Officer Torres then went over the air and stated that the subject, now known as [REDACTED] was armed. Officer Torres walked through a vacant lot to the south of the building and heard either Officer Cutrone or Officer Maseth state that [REDACTED] had gone back inside the building. Officer Torres was only able to hear but not see Officer Cutrone or Officer

Maseth due to the lack of artificial lighting in the back yard. Officer Torres stated that he thought that [REDACTED] would run out of the front of the building and ran back to the front sidewalk in order to intercept [REDACTED]. Officer Torres observed Officer Schmidt draw his firearm and, as a result, Officer Torres drew his firearm for the first time. Officer Torres stated that he believed that Officer Schmidt heard somebody coming out through the north gangway of the building. When nobody appeared, Officer Torres again walked through the vacant lot, heading to the back of the building. Officer Torres then heard three or four shots fired. Officer Torres jumped over the fence between the two properties and ran to the back doorway. He then observed Officer Cutrone attempting to handcuff [REDACTED] who was lying face down on the floor on the first landing. Officer Torres asked Officer Cutrone and Officer Maseth, who was on the staircase leading to the second floor, if they were all right and they replied "yes." Officer Torres then holstered his firearm. Officer Torres observed a firearm approximately two to three feet away from [REDACTED]. Because [REDACTED] was resisting, Officer Torres picked up the firearm and held on to it. Officer Schmidt arrived to the back and proceeded to assist Officer Cutrone and Officer Maseth, who had come down the stairs, in handcuffing [REDACTED]. Officer Torres observed blood on the floor but did not observe [REDACTED] injuries; he then went over the radio and requested an ambulance. Officer Torres stated that he also observed a white shirt on the floor next to [REDACTED]. Officer Torres believed that it belonged to [REDACTED] because [REDACTED] was not wearing a shirt. (Att. # 46, 65)

In a statement to IPRA on 02 November 2014, the witness, Officer Richard Schmidt, stated that he was the driver of an unmarked police vehicle as a member of a Tactical Team. His partner was Officer Torres and both officers were in civilian dress. Officer Schmidt stated that he heard a call over the radio about a person with a gun at [REDACTED] S. Morgan. Officer Schmidt also heard over the radio that a father had called about his son who was in the rear of the residence and had a gun. When he arrived, Officer Schmidt observed Officers Cutrone and Maseth drive up at about the same time, exit their vehicle and run eastbound to the back of the building. Officer Schmidt did not recall if the two officers ran through the alley or the vacant lot next to the building. As Officers Schmidt and Torres stood in front of the building, a black male leaned out of the second floor window and yelled out at the officers that his son was in the back of the building and that he had a gun. Officer Schmidt then removed his firearm from its holster and held it in his right hand; Officer Torres went over the radio and advised all responding units that there is a man with a gun. Officer Schmidt suggested to his partner that they remain on the front sidewalk. Officer Schmidt stated that in order to maintain a visual with the front door and the south side of the building, in case something was thrown out from the side of the building, he walked southbound on the sidewalk, reached the alley and headed eastbound. Officer Schmidt then heard yelling and three to four shots fired. Officer Schmidt described the shots as fired in rapid succession. Officer Schmidt did not remember what was being yelled, and did not recognize the voice but identified it as a male voice. Officer Schmidt ran to the east alley of Morgan, turned north, reached the building at [REDACTED] S. Morgan and entered the rear door of the enclosed porch. Officer Schmidt first observed a blue steel revolver with a brown handle lying on the first floor landing at the top of the staircase. Officer Schmidt then observed a black male, now known as [REDACTED] "hunched over" against a wall and saw blood on the floor. Officer

Cutrone was holding one of [REDACTED] arms and was trying to put the arm behind [REDACTED] back. Officer Schmidt stated that [REDACTED] was flailing his arm and Officer Cutrone was struggling to place his handcuffs on [REDACTED] hand. Officer Schmidt ran up the stairs and placed one handcuff on [REDACTED] arm. Officer Schmidt stated that [REDACTED] was repeating, "I'm shot six times." Officer Maseth then appeared and positioned himself between Officers Cutrone and Schmidt and together they were able to place two sets of handcuffs on [REDACTED] hands. Officer Schmidt did not recall where Officer Maseth came from. Once the officers placed handcuffs on [REDACTED] Officer Schmidt turned around to make sure the gun was still on the floor. Officer Schmidt discovered that the gun was no longer there and found out that Officer Torres had arrived, had picked up the firearm, and had called for an ambulance. Officer Schmidt later learned that Officer Cutrone was the individual who had discharged his firearm. When Officer Schmidt was asked whether he gave any verbal commands to [REDACTED] Officer Schmidt replied that he stated, "Put your hands behind your back." (Att. #'s 47, 64)

In a statement to IPRA on 02 November 2014, the witness, Officer Adam Maseth, stated that he was assigned to Beat 762C as a member of a Tactical Team on patrol in the 007th District. Officer Maseth was the passenger in an unmarked police vehicle driven by his partner, Officer Cutrone. The officers received a call over the radio of a person with a gun at [REDACTED] S. Morgan Street. Officer Maseth communicated over the air that he and Officer Cutrone were responding to the location. When they arrived, Officer Cutrone stopped their vehicle just south of the above location, in front of a vacant lot. Officer Maseth exited the vehicle and heard a male voice yelling from the rear of the above location. Officer Maseth did not recall whether the male individual was saying any words. Officer Maseth ran eastbound through the vacant lot to take cover behind an empty metal shipping container. On his way to the container, Officer Maseth observed a black male in the back yard of [REDACTED] S. Morgan. The black male, now known as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was facing the building and yelling; Officer Maseth stated that he did not hear what [REDACTED] was yelling. Officer Maseth stated that there was artificial lighting coming from the windows of the enclosed rear porch and he observed [REDACTED] holding a gun in his hand. Officer Maseth did not recall in which hand [REDACTED] was holding the gun. Officer Maseth described the gun as a black revolver. When Officer Maseth reached the metal container, he was joined by Officer Cutrone and they decided not to jump the fence directly into the back yard where [REDACTED] was located. Instead, the two officers proceeded eastbound and jumped a fence into the east alley of Morgan. As they were jumping the fence, Officer Maseth heard the back door to the enclosed back porch slam shut. The officers observed an open gate to the property of [REDACTED] S. Morgan and Officer Maseth ran toward a big tree in the back yard and took cover behind it. Officer Maseth heard screaming from two different people inside the enclosed porch and he and Officer Cutrone ran to the building. Officer Cutrone then kicked in the door and both officers looked inside the enclosed porch. Officer Maseth observed [REDACTED] legs through the stairs as [REDACTED] was descending from the second floor to the first floor landing. [REDACTED] had a white rag or shirt over one of his hands; Officer Maseth did not recall which hand. [REDACTED] appeared to be muttering something, but Officer Maseth could not understand what [REDACTED] was saying. When [REDACTED] reached the first floor landing, he turned to his left and faced the officers, who were at the bottom of the staircase by the rear door of the enclosed porch. Officer Maseth observed the pistol in the hand with the white rag or shirt and immediately yelled at [REDACTED] to "drop the pistol." [REDACTED] dropped the white rag or shirt from his hand and immediately placed the firearm on the floor between his feet. Officer Maseth ordered [REDACTED] to turn around. [REDACTED] did not comply and instead began rocking his body back and forth and looking at the pistol, then at the officers, then back at the pistol. Officer Maseth stated:

A: He [REDACTED] makes a motion down like he's goin' to retrieve this pistol. And at that time my partner fired three to four rounds.

Page 29, Line 20

Q: Was he able to, when he was bending over to, to what it looked like was he tryin' to, did it look like he was tryin' to pick up the gun again or?

A: Absolutely.

Q: When he motioned down?

A: Yes.

Officer Maseth stated that he did not discharge his firearm because Officer Cutrone was almost in front of him. Officer Maseth estimated that less than one minute elapsed between the time that Officer Maseth gave verbal commands to [REDACTED] to turn around to the time that Officer Cutrone discharged his firearm. [REDACTED] took a few steps backward to the wall and the officers ascended the stairs. Officer Cutrone grabbed [REDACTED] left arm and Officer Maseth was about to grab the right arm. Officer Maseth then heard screaming from the second floor and ran up the staircase to the second floor where he observed the residents coming out of their apartment. Officer Maseth told them to stay inside and went back downstairs. Officer Maseth then reholstered his firearm and assisted Officer Cutrone and Officer Schmidt, who had by now arrived at the scene, to place handcuffs on [REDACTED]. Officer Maseth described [REDACTED] as "resisting" by not placing his arms behind his back; according to Officer Maseth, the officers used two sets of handcuffs to place [REDACTED] in custody. Officer Maseth observed blood around [REDACTED] chest area and on the floor. Officer Maseth stated that Officer Torres picked up [REDACTED] firearm and held onto it. Officer Maseth then exited the porch area and waited for the ambulance and supervisors to arrive. (Att. #'s 45, 66)

In a statement to IPRA on 03 November 2014, the involved officer, Anthony Cutrone, stated that he was assigned to Beat 762C and was on routine patrol with his partner, Officer Maseth. The officers were dressed in civilian clothes and driving an unmarked Chevrolet. The officers received a radio call regarding a man with a gun at [REDACTED] S. Morgan Street when they were approximately two blocks west of that location. Officer Cutrone drove to [REDACTED] S. Morgan Street and, upon arrival, observed another tactical unit in a second unmarked vehicle also stopping at that location. Officers Cutrone and Maseth exited their vehicle and heard an unknown male yelling in "some sort of distressed voice" from the rear of the building. Officer Cutrone stated that he could not tell if the yelling was "out of anger or fear." Officers Cutrone and Maseth proceeded eastbound through a vacant lot that was adjacent to the building. Officer Maseth observed an individual and told Officer Cutrone that the individual had a gun. Officer Cutrone did not observe the individual at this time. The two officers jumped over a fence and entered the property of [REDACTED] S. Morgan through an open gate. Officer Maseth took cover behind a tree and Officer Cutrone ran to the building where he took cover against the wall. Officer Cutrone heard more yelling coming from inside the building and heard a voice state, "he's gotta gun, he gotta gun." Officer Cutrone could not tell if it was a male or female voice. Officer Cutrone then kicked the door open, looked inside and observed a staircase to his left leading to the first floor landing and another staircase leading to the second floor. Officer Cutrone remained mostly outside the door in order to maintain cover. Officer Maseth ran from the tree and entered the building and stood to the right of Officer Cutrone. The two officers then observed the offender, now known as [REDACTED] coming down the staircase from the second floor. [REDACTED] turned and faced the officers, and Officer Maseth began repeatedly yelling at him to "drop the gun." Cutrone observed credit cards or identification cards in [REDACTED] right hand. [REDACTED] then bent forward slowly and Officer Cutrone observed a black revolver in [REDACTED] left hand. [REDACTED] turned the revolver's muzzle toward his right and placed on the floor between his feet. [REDACTED] then stood upright and Officer Maseth began yelling for [REDACTED] to turn around. Officer Cutrone explained that his partner's commands to [REDACTED] were appropriate because the officers wanted him to face away from the threat, as opposed to ordering him to get down or come down the stairs. According to Officer Cutrone, Officer Maseth repeated very loudly the command to turn around between six to ten times. Officer Cutrone stated that [REDACTED] was mumbling something incoherently and described him as "very stocky" and shirtless. Officer Cutrone continued to point his firearm at [REDACTED] as Officer Maseth kept yelling for [REDACTED] to turn around. [REDACTED] began to rock his upper body back and forth while his feet stood still. Officer Cutrone observed that [REDACTED] eyes were glazed over in a manner that the officer interpreted that [REDACTED] may have been intoxicated or high on "some sorta drug." [REDACTED] began to stare at the officers, then at the revolver on the floor, and again back at the officers. Officer Cutrone stated:

A: Um he did that three or four times, looked down and then looked back at us. Um it seemed to me that the manner in which he was lookin' down and looking at us was as if he was makin' some sort of a decision. And then my partner was still yelling "turn around, turn around." He never once seemed that he was gonna obey that command. He bent forward perhaps got to maybe a 45 degree angle at his upper body and then I don't remember which arm but he reached down toward the gun to grab it and then I opened fire. I fired three times, three, four times.

Q: About how much time between the time that he put it down till the time that he went to reach for it was there?

A: I would say closer to 10 seconds. Possibly between 10 and 15 seconds.

Officer Cutrone described his discharge as "rapid fire" and stated that [REDACTED] was between five to ten feet away from him. Officer Cutrone stopped firing when he observed blood come out of [REDACTED] abdomen and [REDACTED] stumbled backwards to the wall of the building. The officer then communicated over his radio that shots had been fired by the police. Officer Cutrone walked up the stairs and picked up the revolver, because he wanted to keep control of that weapon since [REDACTED] was still on his feet. Officer Cutrone decided that [REDACTED] was incapacitated enough to the point where the officer could attempt to affect the arrest. As a result, Officer Cutrone placed the revolver back down on the landing, grabbed [REDACTED] left arm and tried to place it behind his back. Officer Cutrone then instructed his partner to "clear upstairs" because [REDACTED] had come downstairs from the second floor. Officer Maseth went upstairs while Officer Cutrone struggled to place [REDACTED] arm behind his back. Officer Schmidt arrived and began to struggle with [REDACTED] right arm. Officer Maseth came back downstairs, and the three officers used two pairs of handcuffs to detain [REDACTED] and then placed him on his chest. Officer Schmidt asked, "Where's the gun?" and Officer Torres replied that he had recovered the revolver. Officer Cutrone observed Officer Torres holding the revolver in a white cloth. Officer Cutrone then exited the building and remained in the yard as additional units responded and the scene was secured. Finally, Officer Cutrone stated:

Q: At the time that you discharge your weapon did you have any other available options when it came to stopping the threat to you or your partner?

A: No.

Q: And why do say no?

A: Because he was goin' for a gun which led me to believe that this, that the offender I was in fear for my life and my partner's life.

CONCLUSION:

As outlined by the Chicago Police Department Use of Force of Model; the Illinois State statute; and the Chicago Police Department's General Order 03-02-03, Section III:

- A. a sworn member is justified in using force likely to cause death or great bodily harm only when he or she reasonably believes that such force is necessary:
  1. to prevent death or great bodily harm to the sworn member or to another person, or:
  2. to prevent an arrest from being defeated by resistance or escape and the sworn member reasonably believes that the person to be arrested:

- a. has committed or has attempted to commit a forcible felony which involves the infliction, threatened infliction, or threatened use of physical force likely to cause death or great bodily harm or;
- b. is attempting to escape by use of a deadly weapon or;
- c. otherwise indicates that he or she will endanger human life or inflict great bodily harm unless arrested without delay.

Based on the totality of circumstances, Officer Cutrone was reasonable in his belief that [REDACTED] represented a threat of death or bodily harm to himself and his partner. Therefore, Officer Cutrone's use of deadly force against [REDACTED] was within Chicago Police Department policy.

The events leading up to the shooting illustrate that [REDACTED] was acting erratically, which may have been the result of narcotics intoxication. At 20:14:46 hours, Witness [REDACTED] called 911 to report a disturbance and, while on the telephone with the 911 operator, noted that she just heard four shots fired outside. Vernice Garrett, Offender/Victim [REDACTED] mother, also called 911. During her call, which was made at 20:14:23 hours, Ms. Garrett stated that her son was high on PCP and was shooting his gun. [REDACTED] in his statement to the detectives, admitted that he had been smoking marijuana laced with PCP in the back of his parents' building. This prior erratic behavior by [REDACTED] is consistent with that observed by the officers, lending credibility to their descriptions of his lack of cooperation. Having been apprised of the information provided by the 911 callers, the responding officers, including Officer Cutrone, were aware that [REDACTED] represented a potential serious threat because: (1) he was armed, and (2) he was intoxicated on a narcotic that is generally known to produce erratic behavior.<sup>5</sup>

According to Officer Cutrone and Maseth, when they encountered [REDACTED] in the stairwell, he was acting strangely: he began rocking his upper body and looking back and forth between the gun and the officers. According to Officer Cutrone, [REDACTED] was also visibly intoxicated, which also made it reasonable to believe that [REDACTED] might act erratically, and therefore, represent a threat. The fact that a brown substance that appeared to detectives to be PCP also supports the Officer's observation that [REDACTED] appeared intoxicated, which is corroborated by [REDACTED] mother's initial statements in her 911 call. Based on these events, it was reasonable for Officer Cutrone to fear that, when [REDACTED] reached down to pick up the firearm he had discharged only moments earlier, he might also discharge the firearm at him or his partner.

As outlined above, [REDACTED] pled guilty to aggravated assault to a police officer with a weapon, thereby admitting that his actions placed the officer in fear of battery.<sup>6</sup>

<sup>6</sup> A review of the electronic records in criminal case number 14CR2119501 indicates that [REDACTED] pleaded guilty to two counts of aggravated assault to a peace officer with a weapon under 720 ILCS 5/12-

Based on the totality of the circumstances, Officer Cutrone's use of deadly force against [REDACTED] was objectively reasonable, and, therefore, within the policy of the Chicago Police Department.

2(B)(4.1), relative to this incident. Aggravated assault to a peace officer with a weapon is committed when an individual uses a deadly weapon to place a peace officer in fear of receiving bodily harm. By pleading guilty to this offense, [REDACTED] admitted to using his gun to place Officers Cutrone and Maseth in fear of receiving bodily harm.
